

1. Community outreach refers to activities that increase awareness of referral agencies and what they do for the clients in their service area. Examples include involvement in establishing community partnerships, involvement in community events, displaying program materials in public spaces, and marketing activities.
2. In-kind contribution is a donation of services, time, or goods. For example, a tangible in-kind donation could include books, equipment, and toys.