The following standards must be substantially met or exceeded by the accreditation standards of the entity seeking approval as a Gold Seal Quality Care accrediting association. The applicant for Gold Seal accrediting association will be required to use this form to provide a crosswalk aligning its standards with the standards below. The applicant's standards need not be organized in the same manner as ~~the~~ these standards below, but must be completed in a fashion that permits the Division of Early Learning (DEL) Department to perform a line-by-line comparison of standards, whenever practicable. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that the crosswalk is clear and concise in its presentation. If a line-by-line comparison is not practicable, the DEL Department will review the applicant's standards using the following grouping and sub-grouping of standards.

Please note that an applying association must receive an overall minimum score of 85% pursuant to Rule 6M-10.002, 65C-22.009(4)(c) Florida Administrative Code for approval as a Gold Seal Accrediting Agency and must ensure each child care provider accredited under the associations accreditation standards also meet an overall minimum score of 85%.

The text in the left column(s) below is the Gold Seal criteria standards. The right column has been left blank for use as a crosswalk, if the accrediting association chooses to use this format.

STANDARD: Teacher-Child Interactions

Gold Seal Criteria		Crosswalk or Comments for Review
K1	Every attempt is made to maintain continuity of relationships between teaching staff and children and among groups of children:
	a. The program is organized and staffed to minimize the number of group, teaching staff, and classroom transitions experienced by an individual child during the day and program year.
	b. Policies prescribe that each group of children be assigned teaching staff who have primary responsibility for working with that group.
	c. Policies encourage keeping infants and toddlers to age two (2) together with their teaching staff for nine (9) months or longer.
K2	Teaching staff's daily interactions:
	a. Demonstrate their knowledge of the children they teach, their families, and the social, linguistic, and cultural context in which the children live.
	b. Support and challenge children's learning during interactions or activities that are teacher-initiated and child-initiated.
	c. Are available and responsive to children; encourage children to share experiences, ideas and feelings.
	d. Engage in collaborative inquiry with individual children and small groups of children.
	e. Include listening to children attentively and with respect; teachers speak to each child frequently (by name), make eye contact and use clear, correct language patterns, and affectionate, supportive words.
	f. Encourage and recognize children's work and accomplishments.
K3	Teachers manage behavior by:
	a. Helping individual children learn socially appropriate behavior by providing guidance that is consistent with the child's level of development.

	e. Convening families and professionals to develop individualized plans to address behavior.
	f. Using positive behavior support strategies.
	g. Behavior management includes positive guidance, redirection, and the setting of clear clear-cut limits that foster the child's ability to become self-disciplined. Teaching staff anticipate and take steps to prevent potential behavior problems.

K4	Teachers make a concerted effort to understand what children are trying to communicate, and respond sensitively when children are frustrated or angry. Teaching staff actively seek to understand infants' needs and desires by recognizing and responding to their nonverbal cues and by using simple language.
K5	Teachers observe children who have challenging behavior and respond quickly and calmly to prevent children from hurting each other while showing understanding of the children's needs and feelings. Teaching staff assist children in resolving conflicts by helping them identify feelings, describe problems, try alternative solutions, and identify events, activities, interactions, and other contextual factors that predict challenging behavior and may contribute to the behavior.
K6	Staff promote pro-social behavior and create a climate of mutual respect for children and their families by treating them with respect and dignity. No adult or child is treated differently because of a disability, or because of his/her race, religion, ethnic origin, or physical appearance.
K7	Teaching staff are consistent and predictable in their physical and emotional care of all children. Corporal punishment; withdrawal of food, rest, or bathroom opportunities; and any form of emotional abuse are prohibited.
K8	Teaching staff evaluate and change their responses based on individual needs. Teaching staff vary their interactions to be sensitive and responsive to differing abilities, temperaments, activity levels, and cognitive and social development. Teaching staff adjust their interactions to infants' and toddlers'/2-year-olds' various states and levels of arousal.
K9	Teaching staff give one-to-one attention to infants when engaging in caregiving routines. Teaching staff engage infants in frequent face-to-face social interactions each day. These include both verbal behaviors (e.g., talking, cooing, repeating infant sounds, and singing) and nonverbal behaviors (e.g., smiling, touching, and holding).
K10	Teaching staff quickly respond to infants' and toddlers'/2-year-olds' cries or other signs of distress by providing physical comfort and needed care. The teaching staff are sensitive to infants' and toddlers'/2-year-olds' various signals and learn to read their individual cries. Teaching staff facilitate an infant's social interaction when he or she is interested in looking at, touching, or vocalizing to others.
K11	Teaching staff support children's development of friendships and provide opportunities for children to play with and learn from each other. Teaching staff facilitate positive peer interaction for children who are socially reserved or withdrawn and for those who are bullied or excluded.
